on business.
Mr. Ralph Bartholomew returned this morning from Chicago.
Professor S. Jerome Uhl and family left for Cincinnati yesterday.
Messrs. Dick Hughes and John Y. Hill went to Cincinnati today.
Mr. William B. Waterhouse, of this city, was yesterday granted an increase of pension.
Miss Ada B. Corbitt, of Solon, is the guest of Miss M. Pearl Cline, of Fencliff avenue.
Mr. A. L. Claypool, accompanied by his wife and daughter, left today for St. Joe, Missouri.
Pastor's welcome and church social supper at the St. Paul M. E. parsonage and church tonight.
Mrs. Wm. Warden and daughters have returned from Spring Lake Beach, N. J., where they have spent the summer.
Mrs. Charles Cain, formerly Miss Lillian Clark, of Dayton, is the guest of Miss Hallie Kelley, of West Columbia street.
Mr. Harry Barrows, formerly of the Laguna house, now in the hotel business at Marion, Ind., is in the city today.
Mr. Charles Fisher left yesterday for New York city. His two sons left for Reading, Pa., to enter the military academy there.
Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Webb, of Oldtown, Ohio, are in the city, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Drayer, of South Main street.
Miss Mary Cassidy, of Springfield, a charming young lady, is the guest of Miss Nettie McClure, of South Detroit street—Xenia Gazette.

Miss Mattie Schaeffer, the musically talented daughter of Mr. C. H. Schaeffer, left yesterday for Cincinnati to enter the College of Music.
Misses Belle and Maggie Rickert, who have been visiting friends in the city for the past four weeks, left this afternoon for their home in Dayton.

case of Managers Waldman against the "Key-Loaf Co." tomorrow. The defendants did not put in an appearance yesterday, when the case was called.
Dr. Will T. Batterson left last night for Williams county, to take possession of "Red Cloud," a fine trotting horse he has just purchased. He will return Tuesday and expects to have about the finest road-horse in the city.
Rev. J. H. Jenkins, wife and daughter, of Toledo, are in the city, the guests of Doa. Wm. Fay and family. The daughter, Miss Helen, leaves soon for Europe to commence the study of music. She will be accompanied by her mother.
Heard on the street.
"Ah there, Wiggins! Back from the lakes already? What's the matter? Run short of cash?"
"Why, hello, Biggins, glad to see you.
No, the financial part was all right; but it grew so densely cold up there, that they rang the bell on summer suits; so I am home to see about something in the way of a fall suit."
"By the way, Wiggins, that is an unusually well-made suit you have on; neat and stylish; just my idea. If I may ask, who is your tailor?"
"Why, certainly! I don't mind telling you, old boy. I have been getting my clothing of Jason W. Phillips ever since I have worn custom-made suits, and mark my word, for good, honest, stylish clothing, you can't do better in the city of Springfield.
You can rely on every thread and fiber of a suit you purchase there. Give him a call with my compliments."
"Thanks; I believe I will. What is the number of his establishment?"
"Why, No. 29 east Main street."
"All right. Thanks. Good day."

Judge Young Decides That the Charge of Hype Cannot be Sustained.
Yesterday afternoon Judge Young in the police court heard the case of C. H. Step-ton, charged with committing a rape on Mrs. Sadie Jewell. Stepton and the woman were the only witnesses examined. She affirmed the charge and he denied it. Her testimony and the circumstances attending the alleged crime were of such a nature, however, that Judge Young decided that the charge against Stepton could not be sustained and he, therefore, dismissed him.
John Orr was fined $5 and costs for being drunk and disorderly, and Anthony Cliger got the same dose for petit larceny.
Murphy & Bro. have made large purchases of winter underwear, and can offer special bargains in ladies' scarlet wool, camel hair, merino and other stuffs.
Next Tuesday evening, Mr. Ben. Allison and Miss M. B. Merrill will be married at the home of the bride, No. 218 east Liberty street. Both Mr. Allison and Miss Merrill are well known throughout the city, and have hosts of friends who wish them every joy.
There will be a special convocation of Palestine Commandery, No. 35, K. T., this (Friday) evening. Important matters relating to the grand convocation to be considered.

Judge Young Decides That the Charge of Hype Cannot be Sustained.
Yesterday afternoon Judge Young in the
ton, charged with committing a rape on
Mrs. Sadie Jewell. Stepton and the woman
were the only witnesses examined. She affirmed the charge and he denied it. Her
testimony and the circumstances attending
the alleged crime were of such a nature, however, that Judge Young decided that
the charge against Stepton could not be sustained and he, therefore, dismissed him.
John Orr was fined $5 and costs for be-
